TIME:	MINUTES:
10:06 a.m	COURT RESUMED
10:07 a.m	Wes Hill addressed the Court regarding time to be used for closing arguments. The second issue was regarding sealing of the courtroom. Closing arguments may concern issues regarding the Protective Order. Mr. Hill asked that the courtroom be sealed except for corporate representative, Ms. Wagner. Response by Doug Lumish. Perhaps there is another way to handle Protective Order issues other than sealing the courtroom. The Court ordered that the courtroom will be sealed for closing arguments, with the exception of corporate clients. The exempted parties allowed to remain in the courtroom during closing arguments were ORDERED to not reveal or use any confidential information presented.
10:13 a.m	-----Courtroom SEALED at this point for closing arguments-----
10:14 a.m	The Jury Panel was brought in and seated.
10:15 a.m	Wes Hill presented closing argument on behalf of the Plaintiff.
